Singer/songwriter Tim Minchin and former foreign minister Julie Bishop will appear in a new ABC documentary to mark Dementia Action Week. Storm in a Teacup, from Sydney-based filmmaker Nia Pericles, will air on the ABC in September. The documentary follows Pericles' parents, Leon, 70, a Perth-based painter and printmaker and his wife Moira, 69, as Leon deals with the launch of an exhibition and his wife's dementia; Minchin is a friend of the family while Bishop opened Leon's retrospective. Pericles has worked for 25 years on programs such as Bondi Rescue and Getaway, but Storm in a Teacup is described as a very personal work. It will air Tuesday, September 17.
